MEMORANDUM FOR: Director, Foreign Broadcast Information Service

THROUGH: Chief, Operations Group

SUBJECT: Monthly Report - Bangkok Bureau - April 1985

I. GENERAL

A. An agreement was signed on 3 April between the bureau chief and the director general of the Thai Department of Aviation authorizing the installation of a satellite earth station at the Bang Ping receiver site. This capped an effort of more than a year to obtain such authorization from the Thai Government. TOOT, TOOT!

B. The 10th anniversary of the communist victory in Saigon was celebrated with great fanfare. Vietnam opened its doors to a horde of Western newsmen who flooded not only Ho Chi Minh City but Bangkok -- the rear support area -- as well. Vietnam's publicity extravaganza appears to have backfired, however, as most of the reporting coming out of Vietnam during the month focused on the failure of the socialist system there. In contrast, the 10th anniversary of the Khmer Rouge victory in Phnom Penh was marked only with a very subdued ceremony in Phnom Penh in which the Heng Samrin government representatives criticized the Khmer Rouge as much as they did the Western "colonialists."

II. OPERATIONS

A. Monitorial/Editorial

1. On the basis of a report appearing in a Thai publication not monitored by the bureau, MOD on 16 April reported that the clandestine Voice of the People of Thailand radio of the Thai Communist Party was once more said to be broadcasting on its old frequencies. The bureau had been maintaining cruising checks on these frequencies and was able to confirm that VOPT was not using them.

2. The clandestine Voice of the People of Burma, radio of the Burmese Communist Party, has been silent since 17 April. Technical difficulties offer the most likely explanation for this: VOPB did not announce formally that it was going off the air as two previously discontinued Southeast Asian clandestine radios had done, and it has had previous outages for technical reasons. However, the almost simultaneous announcement by Rangoon that Burmese leader Ne Win was about to visit the PRC -- for the first time in his capacity as ruling party leader -- has raised the possibility that Beijing has silenced the radio for political reasons. The bureau and AG are consulting on this development. ✓

3. The Malay-language broadcasts of the clandestine Voice of the People of Malaysia radio of the breakaway Malaysian Communist Party faction, which had been unheard at the bureau since March, became monitorable once more as of 28 April. No explanation was given of why these programs became unmonitorable while the radio's broadcasts in other languages continued to be heard.

4. Four small PAL color TV sets have been purchased and will be modified to provide a video array for the Thai section to help cope with the unannounced live military and civilian leader addresses that have occasionally been carried on one or more Bangkok TV stations.

B. Communications

STAT
STAT
The bureau's primary communications circuit was rehomed to Clark [redacted] on 4 April. This had the unexpected effect of cutting off our altroute [redacted] which was, however, recovered by early May. The Clark circuit has thus far been shown to be less stable than the [redacted] primary circuit had been.

C. Technical

STAT
Associate Editor [redacted] has been training other editors and the chief monitor to use the IBM-PC located in the editorial room. Editor [redacted] has already created a file on the bureau's library holdings, while Chief Monitor [redacted] has created a publications subscription file and Senior Editor [redacted] has begun to input the editorial SOP book.

III. ADMINISTRATION

Buildings and Grounds

Antenna field maintenance at Bang Ping is almost completed after the setting and guying of four new concrete poles and the restringing of transmission lines. As usual, several large deadly snakes were killed in the antenna field. The bureau chief was presented with the skin of a viper (it has been left to AG to analyze the meaning). Both concrete air conditioner pads adjacent to the Bang Ping building had sunk and had to be replaced. A cluster of piles was used to retard the inevitable sinking of the new pads.

IV. VISITS

A. State Department health and safety inspectors Larry McGintz and Mark Miktavage surveyed the bureau on 2 April.

STAT
B. Engineering Staff's [redacted] and ROSET contractors [redacted] and [redacted] conducted a survey of the Bang Ping receiver site and held meetings with local contractors and with the embassy's Customs and Shipping office 29 April - 4 May in anticipation of the delivery and installation of the ROSET equipment.

C. The bureau chief was in Headquarters for the Bureau Chiefs' Conference 15-24 April and observed Panama Bureau's ROSET, 29 April - 1 May, returning to the bureau on 4 May.

V. COMMUNITY ACTIVITIES

Deputy Chief [] spearheaded a semiofficial American Community-Bangkok Community Theatre-Bangkok Music Society full-scale production of the Broadway musical "Fiddler on the Roof" at the American University Association Auditorium 18 - 20 April. The opening night charity performance, presided over by 1st Army Region Commander Lt Gen Pichit Kullavanich (a major figure in Thailand) and by American Ambassador John Gunther Dean, raised nearly 100,000 baht for General Pichit's favorite charity. Joining General Pichit, the Deans, the USIS director and the [] in the dignitaries box were Thai DCI Piya Chakkaphak and various Thai military leaders. In the country team meeting following the financially and critically successful production, the Ambassador remarked favorably on the timely melding of the cultural event with embassy goals.
